*I would highly recommend the law firm of Saunders, Walsh and Beard. They are a team of lawyers that you can trust. They take the time to listen to my needs and then get the job done. They are seasoned attorneys with extensive training and experience in a wide variety of law concerns. As a busy medical professional that understands the benefit of efficiency, one of the great things about this group is that they always got the work done in a timely manner. Not once have I ever had to call and ask where the work product was. I am so fortunate to have this group of attorneys on my side.
